More from the Great Fire—All the Bodies Supposed to be Recovered—The Funeral Obsequies.

New York, September 10.—A Scranton, Pa., dispatch says that Mr. Benjamin Hughes is quite satisfied that no more bodies remain below, and in this opinion he is endorsed by the best authorities; nevertheless, to satisfy everybody, the work of search, though temporarily stopped for more thoroughly ventilating, the exploration of the mine will be carried on again tomorrow with additional gangs of men, and every possible nook and corner will be explored.

The funeral of forty-three miners today was an event of unusual importance. A solemn requiem was followed by the city bells, flags were hung at half-mast, stores were closed, the principal streets deserted, the numerous locomotives draped in mourning, and all of the working population of Scranton appeared to have taken themselves to Avondale. One train of thirty-seven passenger cars, carrying thirty-five hundred passengers to the scene of the late disaster, was so greatly crowded that two men were knocked off and cut to pieces by the train. The crowd at Avondale was immense, and extended down the railroad track for miles.

A vast majority of those present came purely from motives of curiosity.
There were hundreds of women dressed in costumes more befitting a picnic than a funeral, and among many of the men there was a lack of decorum and rudeness of manner better adapted to the neighborhood of a prize fight than a solemn scene of such great grief.

A great deal of controversy is going on in town on the question of who is to blame for the present inefficient state of the mine, and giving protection to the miners. One side insists it is the miners to blame, for if they chose to say they were not in any mine unprovided with means of escape in case of accident to the shaft, the owners of mines would quickly see it was to their interest to adopt the proper precautions against the dangers that are so apparent to miners. The miners say they will risk working underground if they are paid; and are utterly indifferent to palpable danger, as the savior who goes to see in a leaky ship.

THE RACES.

Immense Concourse of People—Great Excitement.

LEXINGTON, September 10.—There was great excitement to-day at the race course. The attendance was extraordinarily large. In the betting affair. Exchange being the second choice, and Versailles last. This race was for the Produce stake, two miles, two mile heats, and with fourteen entries, but three starting. The weather was beautiful and the track in good order, but not considered fast.

WASHINGTON.

Appointments—Sherman Commissioned
Secretary of War—Government Expense.

WASHINGTON, September 10.—The President has appointed J. M. Clark Judge of the Interior. Clark is of the United States for Rhode Island.
Gen. Sherman was yesterday commissioned Secretary of War pro tem.
Vice-Admiral Porter returned to Washington to-day.

The warrant books of the Treasury Department show that the expenditures of the Government for the fiscal year just ended were less than $285, 000,000, and nearly as low as in 1897.
The actual expenses of the military branch of the Government during the fiscal year previous to the one ending the 30th of June last, were $229,000,000. The Navy Department expenses for the year ending June, 1898, were $30,000,000, while for the last fiscal year they have reached only $23,000,000. The War Department proper were increased $9,000,000, while those of the Interior Department have gone up from $25,000,000 to $28,000,000. The above exhibit will be made in the forthcoming official report of the Treasury.

The Commissioners for the settlement of the claims of Hudson Bay and Puget Sound Companies have made their annual report to the commissioners, which will be made in the forthcoming official report of the Treasury.

of State, A. W. Wells; Auditor, Joe McElroy; Treasurer, R. H. Lowry; Attorney General, Thos. S. Galbright; Superintendent of Education, James R. Brown for Congress in the Fifth nessee, eliciting enthusiastic applause.

The Mississippi Press Association held a session this week at Canton.
They accepted the invitation to visit Memphis and Louisville.

resident officers of the Army of Tennessee held a meeting last night, and

HAVANA.

Battle Near Los Tunas—The "Rebe" Successful.

HAVANA, September 10.—The particulars of the battle near Los Tunas have been received. The Spanish force amounted to 40,000, and the Cubans to 6000. The Cubans lost 167 killed, 167 wounded, and 45 missing.
The Spanish loss was 290 killed and 600 wounded, who were left on the field. The Cubans captured 400 de-rriers, and 270 prisoners.

KEOKUK.

Special Dispatch to the Appeal.

KEOKUK, IOWA, September 9.—The Commercial Convention has adjourned. The proceedings were anything but satisfactory to the Mississippi, Tennessee, Louisiana or Arkansas delegates. There was literally nothing done for the lower Mississippi or the States bordering thereon.
The banquet to-night will develop nothing. We must look to the Louisianne Convention, which by intelligent gentlemen here is considered the legiti-mate succession of the Memphis Commercial Convention, the only gathering of this kind from which we have yet realized any direct benefit.

ROCHESTER.

Railroad Troubles—The Portage Accused Caved In.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., September 10.
Judge Johnson has issued an order returnable on the 20th, to both sets of the Albany and Susquehanna Railroad, to show cause why an injunction should not be rendered against them and a receiver appointed. In the meantime, the road is in custody.
The schooner Echo was exploded in the lake on Wednesday night, and the crew probably perished. She belonged to Hamilton.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From Richmond, Chicago, Santa Fe, Omaha and Louisville.

RICHMOND, September 10.—The Republican State Central Committee has called a State Convention, to meet here on the 24th of November.

CHICAGO, September 10.—Chas. H.
Wright, city editor of the Times, died to-day of heart disease, aged thirty years.

SANTA FE, September 10.—The whole Republican ticket has been elected. Cheevers, delegate to Congress, is currently closing the little business left. Great depression prevails. The merchants do not do business enough in one day to pay their daily taxes.

LOUISVILLE, September 10.—The Governors of Georgia, Missouri, New York, Maryland and Louisiana have been appointed delegates to the Southern Convention, which meets here on the 12th of October. Speaker Blaine and Senator Forney state their inability to be present, but extend their sympathy in the objects of the Convention.

CINCINNATI, September 10.—The Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce has donated $500 for the widows and orphans of Scranton, Pa.

DENVER, September 10.—It is reported that the paying teller of the
